Dear Parents and Students,

The purpose of this document is to provide the guidelines and procedures for our class and tournaments. Please read it thoroughly and carefully, including the Honor Code at the end. Sign and return the acknowledgement page. Students may not compete at a tournament unless the acknowledgement form has been received.

This guide has been amended over the years to meet the needs of the team and ensure a community of respect and professionalism. While it's comprehensive, there are likely things about our team that it doesn't specify, so if you have any questions or concerns about anything in the guide, don't hesitate to contact Mr. Hill at fhill1@houstonisd.org

TOURNAMENT DRESS-CODE

What You Should Wear

- Dress shirt (with tie)
- Dress slacks (with belt)
- Dress shoes with dress socks
- Business formal skirt
- Coat/blazer

- Long hair should be tied back

What You Should Not Wear

GENERAL TOURNAMENT ETIQUETTE

- No gum when competing.
- Cell-phones must be "silent" while competing. You should not be on your device at all while competitors are performing.
- Unless you are cross-entered, you are expected to watch everyone in your round.
- ALWAYS thank your judges and your opponents.
- You are to remain on the host campus throughout the tournament unless picked up by a parent. You are expected to stay through to the awards ceremony to support the team, even if you have been eliminated. You should not leave the tournament just because you think you have been eliminated. You should only leave after informing me and only in case of emergency. Leaving without letting me know causes problems when we all leave the tournament. MAKE SURE YOU SIGN OUT ON THE SIGN OUT SHEET
- All performed interp. material must be published
- You CANNOT have someone fill in for you in elimination rounds.
- Keep your area at the tournament clean. This includes the extemp. draw area. and competition rooms
- Lanier debaters set the standard for award ceremony etiquette. During awards you are expected to sit with our team. Electronic devices should be off during awards. This means the utmost respect is shown to all those who are receiving awards. The first place winner in every category is given a standing ovation.
- If you miss school for a debate tournament, the absence will eventually be coded as 'Excused.' You are responsible for making all arrangements for missed work/classes. If you are scheduled to compete at a tournament on a school day, you must be at school for ADA attendance (unless you have a doctor's note) or you cannot go with us that day.

TOURNAMENT FEES

- No student will be kept from participating due to financial difficulty
- Fees should be paid in a timely manner.
- Please pay your fees through the debate school pay account
- Students are responsible for fees for events they drop if they are dropped past the entry deadline (usually a week before the tournament).

SUPPLIES

- Composition Book or folder with loose leaf paper
- Pen/pencil
- HISD issued Chromebook
- Other supplies as needed

NON-PARTICIPANT ASSIGNMENTS

Two weeks prior to a tournament is set aside for tournament prep. Students competing are expected to bring necessary prep materials to class and to use their prep time productively. Failure to bring materials and/or use their time productively will negatively affect their grade.

Students who are not attending a given tournament will be given a variety of assignments to select from. These "Non-Participant" assignments will be due around the time of the tournament and count as a project grade. Points will be deducted for students who are not ready by the due date.

DISCIPLINE

Behavioral choices made in the classroom and at tournaments have consequences. Classroom behavior indicates how committed you are to debate and is the only barometer I have for how you will represent our team off-campus.

1. Verbal warning
2. Detention (after school/lunch) – Parent contact made
3. Sent to administrator

Strikes are given for poor behavior at tournaments or excessively poor behavior in the classroom.

1st Strike – You will miss the next tournament

2nd Strike – Suspended from debate activities including tournaments, club, banquet, etc.

3rd Strike – No longer allowed to attend tournaments – Not allowed to attend Nationals

PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

We thrive only with parental support. Even if it's just bringing your child to school early in the morning and picking them up late at night from tournaments, your help makes us great! We often need parents to judge at tournaments (no experience necessary), send snacks and water for tournaments and provide our class with general supplies.

LANIER DEBATE – PARENT FAQ

When are the tournaments?

Tournaments are always on Saturdays and sometimes start the Friday before. Buses will be used sparingly this year due to budget constraints. Tournament participation is always optional, never mandatory. Students getting picked up from tournaments MUST sign out.

How much do tournaments cost?

Entry fees are established by the tournament host. Please pay using the debate school pay link. Fees vary depending on the event. Students are responsible for purchasing their meals at the tournaments and are encouraged to bring snacks from home, as the tournament host will sometimes run out of food. No one is prohibited from competing due to unpaid fees, but we ask that you please pay the fees.

What does my child need to bring to the tournament?

The attire is business formal. They will need to bring their scripts in a small black binder if they do interp.; debate cases, laptops, scratch paper and pens if they do debate. Cell-phones, money for concessions and books and electronic devices are fine. Please remind your child to be vigilant and responsible about keeping up with what they bring.

How does my child get to nationals?

NSDA Nationals is an open tournament for middle schools, however due to the entry limits and limited resources, we can only take a portion of our team. Students earn points (much like they do for the high school state tournament). Students can qualify for our national tournament if they have 20 total points. Students who broke at last year's nationals are pre-qualified.

How can I help the team?

Our success relies on your support. Even putting up with our late hours at tournaments is appreciated. Here are some items that we are in need of.

Supplies needed for Debate

- Snacks for debate club and tournaments (anything individually pre-packaged)
- Printer ink – HP63 (black or color but mostly black)
- Bottled water for tournaments
- Kleenexes/paper towels
- White copy paper
- Hand sanitizer
- Amazon/Barnes & Noble credit (purchasing scripts and books for performance)
- Expo Dry-Erase markers (any color)
- Financial donations are always appreciated and can be made through the school pay account
